

The Jacksonville International Airport Arts Commission is offering to cultural and 501c3 organizations in our area the chance to display for a period of six months in the Wall Bay display cases located in the JIA Baggage Claim.

This space receives over 6,800 visitors a day.

Organizations will be assigned Wall Bay A (two cases, south) or Wall Bay B (two cases, north). Both A & B are located in the center of Baggage Claim on either side of the central escalators.

We encourage you to view this as a mini-exhibit for your organization and a chance to educate the public.

Requirements for the exhibit include:

- Professional Graphics and Signage Only.
- Creative and vibrant use of the space.
- Education about the organization or a topic the organization covers.

Wall Bay structural details:

- Each 'Wall Bay' has two cases.
- Each case has four sliding glass panels on the front.
- There are two locks on each case.
- Each case measures 94 ¼ inches long x 13 ¼ inches deep x 46 inches high.
- They are approximately 2 feet apart.
